

Program & Project Management

"... the key to leadership is recognizing that everybody has gifts and talents. A good leader will learn how to harness those gifts toward the same goal."

– Ben Carson

AT A GLANCE

Company Industry
Financial Services

Issue
No True PMO

Challenge

- Previous PMO disbanded years ago
- Decades of little structure and accountability

Solution

- Developed strategic partnership with new PMO and business leaders
- Created and facilitated stakeholder training
- Performed multiple project audits
- Provided resources who could succeed in their environment, including junior talent to help roll out and maintain processes and metrics

Result

- Fully functioning PMO with standardized financials, governance processes, and PPM tool

Company Industry
Healthcare

Issue
No Junior PM Talent

Challenge

- EPMO only employed mid-senior level PMs
- Rapidly growing volume and complexity of projects

Solution

- Provided three young professionals with 5-8 years experience in PC rolls
- Helped client create hiring process that included 3-week intensive onboarding training and 9-month prioritized training (included Portfolio Manager attendance)

Result

- All resources achieved defined PM competencies ahead of schedule
- All resources converted to client
- PCs were able to support senior PMs, Program Managers, Portfolio Managers, and run small projects/work streams

Enabling Execution

Keyot provides project delivery leaders and builds centers of excellence

There is no silver bullet for how an organization should shape their project management practices. We have a proven track record of understanding the unique challenges our partners face and helping them to build the centers of excellence, most commonly Project Management Offices (PMOs), that will provide substantial ROI and repeated project success.

Strong project leadership is paramount to the success of any and all projects. Towards that end, Keyot supplies only A-players in the roles of Program Manager, Portfolio Manager, Project Manager, and Project Controller. We have never let a project fail and our ability to find resources that are the right fit for our partners both technically and culturally is a big reason why.

Keyot's project resources come in a variety of experience levels and specialties. Whether you are looking to lower your resource cost, increase junior talent, add certain subject matter expertise, or simply drive to complete an ailing project, we have the project leaders that can help you be successful.
